Salvation Army Supper.

Last Tuesday night there was quite a large crowd gathered at the Salvation Army Hall to enjoy a supper that had been contributed by several ladies of our city to aid Capt. Johnson in paying off the debt of the hall.

The supper netted the neat little sum of $17.50, and the next day dinners were sold at 15cents, which resulted in about $4 being taken in. Capt. Johnson and his staff desire to thank the people of San Angelo for their generous support. From the way supper was served at 25 cents, it is the opinion of the Press, that the next will be over-crowded. From the way the boys put away the chicken, ham, salads, no end of cake and pies, and all good things to eat, with fine coffee, all for 25 cents, it is the opinion of the Press that it won't do to miss one of Capt. Johnson's suppers.
